TRAILS ON SITE

LOOKOUT POINT: Can be accessed behind the Prayer Garden or by the Dining Hall, and is 0.8 miles. From the top of the lookout you have a great view of camp. You can see the valley camp is nestled in. The ridges and peaks around camp are mostly covered in trees. This is a nice beginner hike, but gains quite a bit of elevation, so take plenty of water, and take your time!

LUNCH ROCKS - This trail is more of an intermediate hike. You can expect it to take about 45 minutes to get to the top. This hike will lead you to a great view of Glorieta Mesa, and a nice place to hammock and hang out with family or friends. Access this trail behind the firehouse, about halfway up the Snack Pack trail, or behind the Hall of States, off Wakefield Rd.

PULPIT POINT - This trail is located up Hagen Rd behind Oklahoma Hall and is easy for most skill levels. About 300 yards up the road there is a sign to point you up a trail to Pulpit Point, this part of the trail can be more intermediate. At the top there are trees and rocks to climb on, as well as a good view of camp.

BROKEN ARROW LOOKOUT - At the end of the RV Park take a left on the Green Trail. After 100-150 ft., there is a sign leading to the right that says "Broken Arrow Trail," take this trail for 1-1.5 miles. Look Out will be on your right. This hike is intermediate, and has a beautiful scenic view

GREEN TRAIL - This is a nice loop that goes all the way around camp. There are many access points around camp. This trail is a great flowy trail that anyone can enjoy, regardless of hiking experience or fitness level. The trail is well-marked and about 3 miles if you hike the entire trail.
